

I am appalled at the persistent poor taste and judgement shown by businesses and their lobbying groups in their efforts to undermine the progress made by state do-not-call laws. I pay for my home telephone service to allow me to speak with my parents, children, employer, and friends. Businesses have no right at all to use the service that I pay for to disturb me at home. Please allow Wisconsin to continue to lead the nation on this front.

Thanks, Brian